The council now has two new districts from the merger of the Cahuenga, Balboa Oaks and Las Colinas District. The new districts are the Campo De Cahuenga District and the Reyes Adobe District.
2019 Western Los Angeles County Council Leadership

COUNCIL KEY LEADERSHIP
LARRY TURPIN, CHAIRMAN designee COUNCIL
COUNCIL

OFFICERS

EXECUTIVE BOARD MEMBERS

EXECUTIVE BOARD MEMBERS

ADVISORY COUNCIL

provided 60,495 hours of volunteer and community service valued at $1,538,362.42. The annual Council food drive gathered more than 41,000 pounds of food which was distributed to local food banks and shelters throughout Los Angeles County.

Provided 60,495 hours of volunteer and community service valued at $1,538,362.42. The annual Council food drive gathered more than 41,000 pounds of food which was distributed to local food banks and shelters throughout Los Angeles County.

After seeing the devastation from monsoons in the Philippines, Eagle Scout project of the year recipient Zachary Moore jumped into action and fundraised to gather materials to send care packages to more than 100 kids at a local Filipino school. The care packages contained critical supplies for them to continue to live as normal a life as possible.

During 2019, Scouts from across WLACC had a huge impact in both the local and international communities.

During 2019, Scouts from across WLACC had a huge impact in both the local and international communities.

Our Scouts wrote more than 10,000 holiday cards sent to service men and women overseas, and raised more than $50,000 to send pallets of popcorn to troops through Operation Gratitude.

In the second year of Scouts BSA, the Council had 996 female Scouts in 16 troops, and in 2020 WLACC will have its first ever female Eagle Scout.

In the second year of Scouts BSA, the Council had 996 female Scouts in 16 troops, and in 2020 WLACC will have its first ever female Eagle Scout.

During 2019, Scouts from across WLACC had a huge impact in both the local and international communities.

Pretty much all of the time Scouting is about learning to give and doing it as a team, the Council’s Eagle Scouts truly epitomize that. They are a barometer for others to follow and a model for what Eagle can mean. They are the ultimate sacrifice for our Country.

The Future of Scouting depends on you.

Thank you for supporting Boy Scouts of America, WLACC.

AR19